Trove, Inc. is not only a “friend to project managers” but senses a real calling to provide COACHING & TRAINING within the PMI COMMUNITY.

DR. RICK FORBUS - CEO of Trove completed an extensive workshop creation project for one of the largest PMP training companies in the USA. This workshop & others have been written to help PMs address some of the “soft skills” that may need development by most managers. Also, Trove Coaches & Consultants have created an affordable process for PROJECT MANAGERS to receive one-on-one coaching via CONFERENCE CALL or SKYPE. Our PM Coaching has been successful in helping PMs: (1) improve professionally, (2) move up in organizations & (3) discover other career opportunities through professional development plans.
